Writings and news clippings related to the Spanish-American War collected by Edward Richard Vance (MSS 612)

Abstract
Finding aid for complete collection information and full-text scans (Click on "Additional Files" below) for material related to the Spanish-American War from the collection of Edward Richard Vance (1833-1902), Warren County, Kentucky native and career U.S. Army officer. Retired at the time of the outbreak of the Spanish-American War, Vance followed the conflict with interest. He collected clippings and wrote short essays about current developments, including the treatment of Cuban civilians in detention camps, Cuban soldiers, and the poor treatment of African-American soldiers returning home after the war.

Disciplines
Military History | United States History

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.wku.edu/tlw_primary/7

Additional Files

MSS 612 VANCE Edward Richard.pdf (1481 kB)
Writings and news clippings related to the Spanish-American War collected by Vance
The collection relates to the formation of the government of the Confederacy and the conduct of its internal, external, and military affairs. With few exceptions, the collection consists of official or semiofficial records generated by departments of the Confederate government and their agents. Other items consist of articles, citations and military papers, clippings, a diary, maps, Reed’s Medals of Honor, photographs, and printed matter. The material is arranged alphabetically by type of material. Edward McMasters Stanton Papers The papers of lawyer and Secretary of War Edwin McMasters Stanton (1814-1869) span the years 1818-1921, with the bulk of the material originating between 1862 and 1870. And the AMERICAN SCENE Annotated bibliography of and inference (guide to writings by and about DWARD. Public relations is today a key activity in the United States. It has an extensive literature. Is not the surest way to insure this freedom the linking up with the ever-growing and spreading radio by harnessing it to the press and making it a source of revenue to itself as well as a source of news and advertising to the public?” "Molding Public Opinion." See Ad.