Add to My Selection

APL: A practical guide for professionals

Author: Simosko, Susan

Abstract:
This book offers comprehensive and straightforward guidance to professionals in education, training or employment, who need or wish to implement an accreditation of prior learning (APL) system. Practical advice, drawn from recent experience in the UK, USA, and Australia, is offered on major key issues including: how to advise and support candidates through the APL process; how to assess candidates; how to evaluate evidence and how to design an APL training programme.

Subjects: Assessment; Evaluation; Workforce development; Pathways; Vocational education and training; Teaching and learning

Keywords: Staff development; Recognition of prior learning; Accreditation of prior learning; Credit transfer; Competency based training; Course design

Geographic subjects: North America; Oceania; Europe; Great Britain; United States; Australia

Physical description: 188 p.

Access item: Request Item from NCVER

Add to My Selection